

SOCIETY

Mrs. Margaret Murphy is a guest at the home of her niece, Mrs. P. L. McCormick on Adams avenue. Before returning to her home, Mrs. Murphy expects to make a tour of the west.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bagley spent the week end in Morgan.

Mrs. Jack Stagg of Bingham is in Ogden visiting relatives.

Coming from far and near, including Idaho, California, other states, and Canada, over two hundred members of the family of John and Cecilia Woodland met Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Lorin Farr park in one of the largest family reunions that has been held in Ogden. After the giving of a program, suggestions for the yearly reunions held by the members of the family resulted in the forming of a permanent organization. H. S. Woodland was elected president of the organization with other assisting officers named as follows: D. P. Woodland, vice president; Jane W. Wood, second vice president; D. B. Woodland, secretary; Charles Wakley, assistant secretary; Kathryn C. Howell, treasurer, and Mary Fox, assistant treasurer. Arrangements are to be made each year for the annual meeting of the organization, either in Ogden or some nearby city, but most probably in Ogden. After the meeting and program, a social hour was enjoyed by the party and the fun continued until late in the day.

Mrs. Louise Stevens announces the engagement of her daughter, Thelma, to Julian S. Watson during the early part of the week. The wedding will take place during the latter part of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol left Monday for the east where Mr. Bristol is in attendance at the International Rotary convention. While in the east Mr. and Mrs. Bristol will visit many of the eastern cities.

Miss Blanche Browning has returned from a visit with Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Canfield in Preston, Utah.

Mrs. C. J. Thomas, Jr., and Mrs. Hyrum Pingree and Mrs. Robert Wilson of Salt Lake, spent one day visiting in Ogden during the last week.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Barber and their little daughter, Rose Mary, have returned from a stay of several weeks in the east where Dr. Barber has been devoting the greater part of his time to post graduate studies and X-ray work as well as oral surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Michaels and two children, Maude and Clifford left today for an extended visit in Wisconsin. While in the east they will also visit Denver, Omaha, Chicago and other points of interest.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Minion and sister, Miss Ragnie Kolstad, left Wednesday for a trip to Berzen, Norway, to visit relatives. They will also visit relatives and friends in Chicago, Washington, D. C., and New York while en route. They will leave for Norway on June 25. They expect to return to Ogden about October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Patterson, Jr., have arrived from Seattle, and will make their home in Ogden. They have taken an apartment at the Fairview.

Miss Jean Hunt of Oakland, Cal., is visiting at the home of Miss Barbara Browning.

In compliment to Miss Edna Volter, a guest of Miss Florence Turner, Miss Elizabeth Browning and Miss Turner entertained Saturday afternoon, June 19, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Browning, on Twenty-seventh street. Five hundred was served during the afternoon and luncheon. Yellow roses artistically arranged in a basket centered the table. Place cards shaded in yellow were laid for the guests. Little nut cups were laid at each place for favors.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Webb and son, Lamar, are in San Francisco, Cal., where they are intending to spend the summer months with Mrs. Webb's sister, Mrs. George W. Emmett. On their return to Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Webb will make their home in Salt Lake.

Miss Margaret Johnson has returned from California where she has been attending school at Palo Alto. She will spend her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Pecker have returned from a three weeks' visit in California, including San Francisco, Los Angeles, San Diego and southern California beaches.

William Henry Lund and Miss Gladys Pearson, both of Ogden were married Thursday afternoon by the Reverend Godfrey Matthews.

Mrs. Thomas Morby and children leave tonight for Denver to join Mr. Morby, who has taken a position with Daniels & Fisher Co., as buyer and manager of their shoe department.

Bertram Brown and Miss Geraldine Rand, both of Ogden, were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 2554 Quincy avenue. The wedding ceremony was performed by Rev. C. R. Garver. Only the immediate members of the family were present.

One of the pretty and impressive weddings of the week was that of Miss Ruth Anderson of Seattle, Wash., and Edward Gordon Smith of Garfield, Utah, which took place last Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Coolidge. Rev. Arthur E. Olsen performed the wedding ceremony. The ceremony was opened by Miss Dora Smith who played Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The bride was attractively gowned in white satin and white georgette and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by Miss Frances Coolidge, who was dressed in peach-colored organza and who carried a bouquet of roses. Pink and white peonies held sway in the parlors, white roses and ferns were artistically arranged around the rooms. Following the wedding ceremony, a breakfast was served in the dining room. Only the immediate members of the family were present for the event. The bride and groom left on a late afternoon train for Salt Lake for their honeymoon and will later return to Garfield, Utah, where they will make their home for the summer. Mrs. E. M. Smith of Idaho, is the guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Coolidge. Mrs. Smith came to Ogden to attend the wedding of her son, Edward Gordon Smith.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Gertrude Carr Thursday at her home on Harrisville road. This will be an all-day picnic meeting. All friends as well as the members of the society are invited to be present.

Forty-five members of Queen City Rehearsal lodge visited the Brightwood lodge Thursday evening. Members of the Ogden lodge under the direction of their captain, H. P. Peterson, exemplified degree work. At the conclusion of the regular business meeting, a luncheon was served.

Mrs. Peter Kasilus, daughter of Mrs. J. W. F. Volker, has returned from Washington, D. C., and will spend the summer in Ogden.

Charles Smyth and bride of San Francisco are on their way to Ireland and will stop in Ogden to visit Mr. Smyth's cousin, D. A. Smyth. From Ogden they will go to the eastern coast and sail for Ireland, where they expect to visit for three months. They expect to return to San Francisco about the last of September and will make their home there.

Miss Charlotte Sander returned to Pocatello last Thursday after spending the week with her parents. Miss Sander was also in attendance at the Leveah-Sander wedding.

Mrs. Kate D. Shill of Salt Lake, first president of the Sons and Daughters of Wales was an Ogden visitor last Thursday evening. She attended the Chautauque meeting which featured a number of Welsh singers. Mrs. Shill was the guest during her stay in Ogden at the home of Bishop Marion Marriott. She returned to her home in Salt Lake Friday afternoon.

Miss Luella Nichols, who takes the part of Flora Bell Dela Martyr in "Braino," a three-act comedy to be given by the members of the Eleventh ward Sunday school players Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Francella Evans, daughter of Judge and Mrs. E. Evans of Salt Lake, is a guest at the residence of Miss Ruth Fisher. Miss Evans is a talented violinist and during her stay in Ogden is taking lessons from Arthur Freiberg. Her visit in Ogden is indefinite.

An entertainment in honor of Miss Hazel Leveah, who was married Wednesday to Hyrum Sander, was given on Thursday evening, June 10, by Mrs. I. Sander and daughter at their home, 2832 Grammercy avenue. The home was prettily decorated with cut flowers and potted plants. The living room and library with yellow and white roses and the dining room with pink and white roses and orange blossoms. The luncheon table was centered with a centerpiece of flowers on a centerpiece of Battenburg lace over pink satin. Crystal holders with lighted candles and vases of flowers added their adorning touches. Covers were laid for twenty. The place cards were hand painted in bluebird design. Orange bouquets of rose buds and orange blossoms, tied with pink ribbon, were presented to the guests. A delicious luncheon was served. During the evening, games and music furnished the entertainment.

The regular meeting of the Queen Esther Chapter was held Friday evening at the Masonic Temple. Initiation ceremonies took place during the evening.

The Mission Circle of the First Baptist church will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Gertrude Coolidge, 2499 Taylor avenue, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. J. G. Gebhardt and Mrs. J. Ray Ward will be the assisting hostesses for the afternoon.

Miss Tena Zikmond, who left for her home in Omaha Tuesday, was entertained by the members of the sewing department of the Union Pacific at the home of Mrs. Della Preese, 2517 Grant avenue, Monday evening. The evening was passed with games, and at a late hour a delightful luncheon was served. The rooms were beautifully decorated with peonies and a large vase of flowers formed the centerpiece for the table. Places were laid for the following: Miss Zikmond, Mrs. Millie Phillips, Mrs. Della Preese, Miss Lillian Hanson, Mrs. Emma White, Miss Dorel Holm, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Lizzie Johnson, Miss Bessie Baker, Miss May Hope, Mrs. Margaret Carman, Mrs. Ella Wilson, Mrs. Della White, Miss Cleo White, Miss Juanita Preese, Mrs. Margaret Arbon.

The Blue Bell club of Ogden enjoyed a day's outing at Lagoon last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Eccles left Tuesday for their home in Los Angeles following a ten day visit in Ogden as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Bristol.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Keller, Jr., entertained at a dinner Monday evening in compliment to their daughter, Kathryn and Edward R. Lewis who were married Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. Pink roses in a crystal basket formed the centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for fifteen guests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Corlew and boys of Denver, Colorado, arrived in Ogden last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Corlew will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Price, during the summer months, who are now stopping at Pineview, Ogden Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Corlew motored from Denver.

A lawn social was given by the members of the Second ward last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reed on Washington avenue. The evening was enjoyed in dancing and other good fun. Ice cream and cake was served to everyone. The social had one of the biggest gatherings of both the members of the wards and their friends and it is evident that the enjoyment was the best by the many requests for another of the lawn socials to be given by the Second ward.

Miss Mary Deckmann of Nevada is visiting in Ogden. Miss Deckmann came to Ogden to attend the commencement exercises of the Sacred Heart Academy.

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen of Big Piney, Nevada, spent the week-end in Ogden. They came to Ogden to be with their daughter, Gladys, who received her graduation honors at the commencement exercises held at the Sacred Heart Academy.

Adding another June bride to the already long list, many friends who witnessed the wedding of Miss Blanche Carlier and Frank Watkins Doney declared it to be one of the most impressive. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, 3 o'clock Wednesday. Bishop M. B. Richardson performed the wedding ceremony. Profusions of roses and peonies were used in the decorations of the home. Following the ceremony, a luncheon was served to the guests. The bride and bridegroom were showered with gifts and hearty good wishes. Those present at the ceremony were: Mrs. Thos. Doney, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Doney, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cazier, Mr. Lawrence Doney, Mr. Roy Doney, Mrs. Hyrum Hill, Mrs. J. C. Fields, Mrs. Loren Short, Mrs. Chas. Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Norris, Mrs. C. H. Wright, Miss J. H. Gaines, Miss Helen Fife, Miss Henrietta Burt, Miss Thelma Cazier, Mrs. John Burt, Mrs. Chas. Cazier, Miss Norma Robertson, Miss Norma Robertson, Mr. Thos. Cazier, Mr. Leonard Cazier, Mr. Thos. Hill, Mr. Fred C. Nalsbitt, Bishop M. B. Richardson, Miss Olive Burt, Miss Angie Lowther.

The Evans orchestra furnished music, one hundred and fifty guests were in attendance.

The couple will spend their honeymoon in the Gateway at Brighton and will make their home in Salt Lake.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Stoltz of Leithbridge, Canada, that on the 19th of this month, their daughter, Miriam Elizabeth, to William H. McIntyre, Jr., of this city. The wedding will take place June 29, at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., will leave Saturday for Leithbridge for the wedding. The couple will make their home in this city.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Viola Johnson of Chicago and Fenton Langley Howard of Salt Lake has been received here. Mr. Howard is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Orson Howard of this city. He has been engaged in business in Chicago for the past three years, and the couple will make their home in that city.

The marriage of Miss Eugenia Parver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parver, and Samuel Makoff took place last night at 7 o'clock at the Hotel Utah. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi William Rice. A large reception followed.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a lace veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. Mrs. J. B. Berkeley and Mrs. L. B. Fuller entertained at a delightful tea Monday afternoon at the Berkeley home on B street in honor of Mrs. J. B. Berkeley of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Harold Berkeley, formerly Miss Maude Barker, whose marriage took place recently. The living room and hall were gay with baskets of white and crimson peonies and in the dining room a pink decorative scheme was effectively carried out. In the center of the table was a large crystal basket filled with pink peonies and at the corners of the table were smaller baskets of roses. Presiding over the bride and coffee urns were Mrs. R. L. Kirk of Moab, Mrs. Elmer Rice, Mrs. Albert Skanky, Mrs. C. J. Bratten, and Mrs. H. McGregor. Seventy guests called during the receiving hours.

Flag day was delightfully celebrated Monday afternoon at the Country club. Members of Liberty chapter, D. A. R., members of which were hostesses at their annual luncheon for many invited guests. Small tables were centered with crystal baskets filled with white peonies, crimson poppies and deep blue corn flowers, while about the dining room and on the veranda baskets of golden flowers in the patriotic colors. The committee in charge of the successful affair included Mrs. William Montague Ferry, chairman; Mrs. L. B. McCormick, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. T. B. Beatty and Mrs. H. K. Klingender.

Mrs. George A. Sheppard, accompanied by little daughters, Margaret and Dorothy, have gone to Idaho, where they will visit with Mr. Sheppard's cousin, Miss Freda Hein, for two weeks.

Mrs. E. F. Martin, formerly Miss Marion Light, whose marriage took place in Los Angeles during the late spring, was home for business on Saturday at a pretty appointed luncheon at the Hotel Utah. The guests were seated at one long table centered with a large crystal basket of pink peonies. Covers were laid for Mrs. Gus Olson, Mrs. Arthur P. Freber, Mrs. La Rue Smith, Mrs. Dan Spencer, Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mrs. L. R. Wardner, Mrs. J. N. Johnson, Mrs. J. A. Carabin, Mrs. G. A. Light, Mrs. H. J. Grut, Mrs. Wallace Carter, Mrs. J. T. Hodson, Mrs. William Connors, Miss Lucille Smith, Miss Gladys Hughes, Miss Mary Hughes, Miss Evelyn Olson, Miss Louise Hodson, Miss Mary Higby and Miss June Olson.

Complimenting Miss Lucille Ballard, a popular bride-elect, Miss Margaret Armstrong presided over a pretty arranged luncheon Monday afternoon at her home on East First South street. The guests were seated at a long table decorated with white and pink flowers and the long table was centered

Salt Lake Society

SALT LAKE, June 19.—Miss Vera Duval, one of the popular brides of the season, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given Tuesday by Mrs. Oscar Groshell and Mrs. Milton H. Love at the Groshell home, 246 Fourth East street. Pink sweet peas in a basket formed a centerpiece for the table. The place cards were hand painted in sweet peas.

Covers were laid for the following guests, besides the bride: Miss Cordelia Straup, Miss Harriet Moyle, Miss Elmer Moyle, Miss Gay Groshell, Miss Martha Richards, Miss Edna Parkinson, Miss Pearl Raddatz, Miss Josephine McCarthy, Miss Athene Farnsworth, Mrs. Charles L. Pyke, Mrs. Seymour Billings, Miss Flora Duval, Mrs. F. H. Groshell and Miss Myrtle Duval.

A luncheon was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. G. W. Williams at her home on L street in honor of Miss Edna Williams, a June bride. Galaridia in a black enamel bowl formed the centerpiece for the table. The place cards were in the form of birds perched on the water glasses.

Covers were laid for Miss Williams, Miss Helen Midgley, Miss Margaret Felt, Mrs. Robert W. Verrill, Miss Fulvia Ivins, Miss Grace Richards and Miss Priscilla Cartwright.

Mrs. A. R. Irvine entertained at luncheon Tuesday at her home, 159 A street, in honor of Miss Mina Taylor, who is to be married soon to Francis Letchfield. The decorations were in pink peonies and California poppies. Covers were laid for fifteen.

Mrs. Harold Felt entertained at luncheon at the Hotel Utah Tuesday in honor of Miss Rose Marie Young, a June bride. A silver basket of spring flowers was the centerpiece for the table. The place cards were hand painted to correspond.

The marriage of Miss Gladys Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Brown, and J. Newman, took place last Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock at the Brown home on Sixth avenue. The ceremony was performed by George H. Wallace of the Esquimaux stake presidency. A reception followed.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white roses and peonies. A bower of the peonies was arranged in the living room and the entrance to the dining room was decorated in roses and keyholes. The lawn, where dancing was enjoyed, was decorated in Japanese lanterns.

The bride wore a gown of white tulle and tulle and carried bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Alton Brown, sister of the bride, wore peach-colored effects and carried pink roses. Wilbur Murphy was best man.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Brown and the wedding party in receiving were Mrs. Joseph Leggett, Mrs. C. A. Hancock, Mr. Gordon Hancock, Mr. Frank Raleigh. Assisting in the dining room were Miss Arlene Brown, Miss Thelma Murphy and Miss Lillice Lee.

The Evans orchestra furnished music, one hundred and fifty guests were in attendance.

The couple will spend their honeymoon in the Gateway at Brighton and will make their home in Salt Lake.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Stoltz of Leithbridge, Canada, that on the 19th of this month, their daughter, Miriam Elizabeth, to William H. McIntyre, Jr., of this city. The wedding will take place June 29, at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McIntyre, Jr., will leave Saturday for Leithbridge for the wedding. The couple will make their home in this city.

Announcement of the marriage of Miss Helen Viola Johnson of Chicago and Fenton Langley Howard of Salt Lake has been received here. Mr. Howard is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Orson Howard of this city. He has been engaged in business in Chicago for the past three years, and the couple will make their home in that city.

The marriage of Miss Eugenia Parver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Parver, and Samuel Makoff took place last night at 7 o'clock at the Hotel Utah. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi William Rice. A large reception followed.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with a lace veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. Mrs. J. B. Berkeley and Mrs. L. B. Fuller entertained at a delightful tea Monday afternoon at the Berkeley home on B street in honor of Mrs. J. B. Berkeley of Springfield, Mass., and Mrs. Harold Berkeley, formerly Miss Maude Barker, whose marriage took place recently. The living room and hall were gay with baskets of white and crimson peonies and in the dining room a pink decorative scheme was effectively carried out. In the center of the table was a large crystal basket filled with pink peonies and at the corners of the table were smaller baskets of roses. Presiding over the bride and coffee urns were Mrs. R. L. Kirk of Moab, Mrs. Elmer Rice, Mrs. Albert Skanky, Mrs. C. J. Bratten, and Mrs. H. McGregor. Seventy guests called during the receiving hours.

Flag day was delightfully celebrated Monday afternoon at the Country club. Members of Liberty chapter, D. A. R., members of which were hostesses at their annual luncheon for many invited guests. Small tables were centered with crystal baskets filled with white peonies, crimson poppies and deep blue corn flowers, while about the dining room and on the veranda baskets of golden flowers in the patriotic colors. The committee in charge of the successful affair included Mrs. William Montague Ferry, chairman; Mrs. L. B. McCormick, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. T. B. Beatty and Mrs. H. K. Klingender.

Mrs. George A. Sheppard, accompanied by little daughters, Margaret and Dorothy, have gone to Idaho, where they will visit with Mr. Sheppard's cousin, Miss Freda Hein, for two weeks.

Mrs. E. F. Martin, formerly Miss Marion Light, whose marriage took place in Los Angeles during the late spring, was home for business on Saturday at a pretty appointed luncheon at the Hotel Utah. The guests were seated at one long table centered with a large crystal basket of pink peonies. Covers were laid for Mrs. Gus Olson, Mrs. Arthur P. Freber, Mrs. La Rue Smith, Mrs. Dan Spencer, Mrs. J. A. Smith, Mrs. L. R. Wardner, Mrs. J. N. Johnson, Mrs. J. A. Carabin, Mrs. G. A. Light, Mrs. H. J. Grut, Mrs. Wallace Carter, Mrs. J. T. Hodson, Mrs. William Connors, Miss Lucille Smith, Miss Gladys Hughes, Miss Mary Hughes, Miss Evelyn Olson, Miss Louise Hodson, Miss Mary Higby and Miss June Olson.

Complimenting Miss Lucille Ballard, a popular bride-elect, Miss Margaret Armstrong presided over a pretty arranged luncheon Monday afternoon at her home on East First South street. The guests were seated at a long table decorated with white and pink flowers and the long table was centered with a basket of white and pink roses. The following guests were bidden: Miss Lucille Covey, Miss Josephine Richards, Miss Beile Livingston, Miss Dean Parkinson, Miss Alida Parkinson, Miss Alida Parkinson, Miss Alida Parkinson, Miss Katherine Spencer, Miss Ruth Allen, Miss Virginia Godbe, Miss Belle Armstrong, Miss Madeline McClelland, Miss Leah Burton, Miss Edith Armstrong, Miss Mabel Reed, Mrs. M. R. Ballard, Mrs. M. J. Ballard, Mrs. Howard Payne Roberts, Mrs. Don G. Williams, Mrs. H. Gordon Jennings and Mrs. R. P. Martin. The hostess was assisted during the afternoon by her mother, Mrs. W. F. Armstrong, Mrs. M. R. Ballard, Mrs. R. W. Madson, Miss Helen Armstrong and Miss Florence Armstrong. Miss Leah Burton will entertain at tea this afternoon at her home on East First South street for Miss Ballard.

The marriage of Miss Marie Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Osborne, to Maurice J. Roche took place Monday at the Cathedral of the Madeleine at 10 a. m. The bride was attended by Miss Gertrude Roche, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid, Little Bernice Decker was the flower girl and Roberta Decker the ring bearer. A wedding breakfast followed at the Hotel Utah for relatives of the couple and in the evening an informal reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Caroline M. J. Roche of Eleventh East street.

The wedding of Miss Winifred Gilroy and Joseph C. Clive took place Thursday morning in the Salt Lake temple. A reception was given last night at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Frank Gilroy, on North Second West street.

The rooms were decorated in roses and peonies. A crystal basket of pink and white peonies, tied with pink maline, was the centerpiece for the supper table.

Receiving with the bride's mother and the wedding party were Professor and Mrs. W. C. Clive, Miss Annie Clive and Miss Agnes Clive.

Assisting in the dining room were Miss Audrey Brewster, Miss Edna Kanne, Miss Bessie Oetler, Miss Laura Gilroy, Funch was served by Miss Dorothy Seymour and Miss Ivy Gilroy.

The bride wore a gown of white satin trimmed in lace. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried bride roses. One of the bridesmaids, Miss Frances Gilroy, wore orchid organza and carried pink sweet peas. The other bridesmaid, Miss Dorothy Seymour, wore pink tulle and carried pink sweet peas. Clifford Clive of Idaho was best man.

After a wedding trip of two weeks the couple will be at home at 163 North State street.

Miss Nellie Johnson and Henry Ehlers were married Tuesday morning in the Salt Lake temple. A reception was given last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Johnson, 1361 Tenth East street. June roses and peonies decorated the rooms.

Assisting in receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and the bridal party were Miss Margaret Howells, Mrs. Frank Goightly, Mrs. May M. Johnson, Mrs. H. Ehlers and Miss Louise Stanley.

The bride wore a gown of white organza with a veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried bride roses. Miss Agnes Howells, one of the bridesmaids, wore flesh-colored tulle and carried pink sweet peas. Miss Josephine Howells wore pink tulle. Both wore hats to match their gowns and carried pink sweet peas as favors.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the couple will be at home after July 1 on Wilson avenue. The going-away gown was of gray, with hat, gloves and shoes to match.

The marriage of Miss Alice Cottam and Ralph Bishop took place Tuesday morning in the Salt Lake temple. A supper for relatives was served last night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Heber Cottam, 117 North Fifth West street. The decorations were in June roses. The bride wore a gown of white tulle. The couple will make their home in Salt Lake.

Miss Viola Peterson entertained at her home, 123 M street, on Tuesday evening for Miss Margaret Burns, a June bride. The living room was decorated in yellow roses. Pink roses were used in the library. In the dining room a basket of pink roses tied with pink maline was the centerpiece for the table. Pink streamers extended from the chandelier to the corners of the table.

The hostess was assisted by her mother, Mrs. H. Peterson, Mrs. Joseph Anderson and Miss Ella Peterson.

A farewell party was given in honor of Mrs. A. B. Nalsmith, who will leave soon for Seattle to make her home. The party was given Monday evening by Mrs. J. O. Oetler, Mrs. Jessie Allen and Elizabeth Nalsmith at the Oldfield home, 1322 West Eighth South street. The decorations were in pink and white peonies. The Ariel quartet furnished music.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Irvine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Irvine, and Earl Oetler took place Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 42 Seventh East street. Bishop Alvin Beesley performed the ceremony. A wedding breakfast followed. The decorations were in June roses.

The couple left on an early afternoon train for Idaho Falls to make their home. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue.

Miss Holly Baxler entertained last Monday at her home on Dresden avenue in honor of Miss Geneva Wells, a bride of the month. The living room was bright with a wealth of garden flowers. The supper table was covered with a shiny lace cloth and was centered with a low crystal bowl filled with deep crimson roses. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. E. E. Baxter and Mrs. A. Hamer Reiser. The guests included Mrs. Elmer Smith, Jr., Miss LeVonn Sharp, Miss Nancy Finch, Miss Edith Wallace, Miss Margarette Judd, Miss Mary Hatch, Miss Geneva Hatch, Miss Evelyn Galey, Miss Beulah Spencer, Miss Lucia Thomas, Miss Bertha Thurgood, Miss Mae Edwards, Miss Carol Cowley and Miss Helen Woodruff.

Miss Edna Williams, whose marriage to Edwin Spencer Felt took place the latter part of the month was the guest of honor Monday afternoon at a delightful Kensington tea given by Miss Fulvia Ivins at her home on Second avenue. The living room was bright with a wealth of pink and white roses and poppies. The tea table was centered with a large crystal basket filled with blooms. The hostess was assisted by Miss Willa Robinson and eighteen close friends of the guest of honor were bidden.

Mrs. Seymour Wallen entertained at tea Thursday afternoon at her home on Eleventh East street in honor of Miss Rose Marie Young, a bride of the late part of June. The living room was decorated in a color scheme of blue and white with Shasta daisies, blue and white with Shasta daisies, Miss Willa H. Astill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Astill, who left last evening for the east, where she will attend the Fidelity Rice school of oral expression at Martha's Vineyard during the summer weeks, and will later attend the New England Conservatory of Music. Miss Astill was accompanied by her mother.

blue corn flowers, wild parsley and white mustard.

A basket of pink and white roses and peonies tied with pink maline was the centerpiece for the tea table.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Rulon S. Wells and Mrs. L. J. Hays. A number of young matrons and girl friends of the bride assisted in the dining room.

Mrs. Arthur Behal of Far Rockaway, N. Y., accompanied by her three children and maid will arrive the latter part of the month for a visit with her parents, Gov. Simon Bamberger and Mrs. Bamberger. Mrs. Behal formerly was Miss Helen Bamberger.

Mrs. Oscar A. Straub, formerly Miss Helen Boyer, arrived Saturday from Fort Snelling, Minn., to spend six weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Boyer at their home on Eighth avenue.

Mrs. James Austin has arrived from Pasadena, accompanied by her two daughters and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Howard for several weeks. A number of social affairs have been

The guests, besides the guest of Miss Inez Brown, one of the little pupils of Mrs. R. P. Hunter who has done exceptional work in the musical line during the last year. Little Miss Inez has appeared in a number of recitals.

given in honor of Mrs. Austin including an informal dancing party recently at their home on E. South Temple street.

Mrs. Harold Peery entertained at luncheon at the Country club Thursday in honor of her sister, Miss Mina Taylor a summer bride. The decorations were in garden flowers. Covers were laid for fifteen.

Following luncheon the guests motored to the home of the hostess on First avenue to examine the bride's trousseau. Others came in for tea. The tea table was decorated in lavender and yellow lilies, arranged in a bowl and tied with two shades of tulle.

A prettily appointed luncheon was given at the Hotel Utah Thursday by Mrs. Spencer Felt and Miss Margaret Felt, in honor of Miss Edna Williams, who will be married the latter part of the month to Edwin Spencer Felt. Pale pink sweet peas arranged in a basket formed the centerpiece for the table. The place cards corresponded.

honor, were Miss Olive Jones, Miss Flora Duval, Miss Cordelia Straup, Miss Milton H. Love, Miss Gay Groshell, Miss Edna Parkinson, Miss Elizabeth Moyle, Miss Harriet Moyle, Miss Pearl Raddatz, Miss Josephine McCarthy, Miss Martha Richards and Mrs. Seymour Billings.

The marriage of Miss Stella Jones and Earl J. Bolton took place last Thursday at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Jones, 620 North Sixth West street. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Alvin Beesley. A reception followed.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white peonies and pink and white roses. Roses were arranged in a basket as a centerpiece for the supper table. The bride wore a gown of white georgette, beaded and carried bride roses. The matron of honor, Mrs. Leslie W. Jones, wore pink and white tulle. The couple will spend their honeymoon in the northwest and will make their home in Salt Lake.